

Natural Gas, Keystone XL, and Administrative Nominations – ML Strategies Weekly Energy and Environmental Update

May 31, 2013 | Blog | By David Leiter

Written by Sarah Litke and David Leiter

Though Congress is out for Memorial Day recess this week, we anticipate that a significant amount of work will be accomplished in the weeks to follow. Last week, the Senate Energy and Natural Resources Committee held its final forums on natural gas, focusing on liquid natural gas (LNG) exports and hydraulic fracturing. The House passed the Northern Route Approval Act (241-175) on Wednesday of last week, but the bill is less likely to see time in the Senate, and the President released a memo stating his intention to veto the bill.

For more on the latest energy and clean technology regulatory and legislative developments, including information on administrative nominees and confirmations, please see ML Strategies' most recent Energy and Environmental Update.

Authors

David Leiter