ML STRATEGIES

What the Election Means for Health Care - Insight from ML Strategies

November 11, 2016 | Blog | By Kate F. Stewart

VIEWPOINT TOPICS

- Federal Government Relations
- Health Care

SERVICE AREAS

- Federal Government Relations
- Health Care

Today, our colleagues at ML Strategies released their first look at what the results of Tuesday's election mean for health care. The client alert addresses both the lame duck session and what to expect in 2017 and beyond. Key issues areas include the future of the Affordable Care Act, MACRA, drug pricing, and FDA User Fee Act reauthorization.

In the coming days, ML Strategies will be sharing further insight into what the election means for health care and what to expect from the new administration and Congress.

Authors

Kate Stewart