ML STRATEGIES

PBM Policy and Legislative Update — Fall 2024

November 22, 2024 | Article | By Rachel A. Alexander, Tara E. Dwyer, Theresa Carnegie, Bridgette A. Keller, Madison M. Castle, David R. Gilboa, Xavier G. Hardy, Samantha Hawkins, Stephnie A. John, Lauren M. Moldawer, Alison H. Peters, Abdie Santiago, Hassan Shaikh, Sophia Temis

VIEWPOINT TOPICS

- Health Care

SERVICE AREAS

- Health Care

Mintz's PBM practice is pleased to present its quarterly publication, PBM Policy and Legislative Update. This edition builds upon prior issues and summarizes activity from July through September that affects the PBM industry. It highlights (i) federal legislative activity and oversight, (ii) state legislative activity and oversight, and (iii) other noteworthy events and trends affecting the PBM industry.

We hope you find the PBM Policy and Legislative Update to be a useful resource. If you have any recommendations on additional content that would be helpful to see in future editions, please do not hesitate to reach out to our team to let us know.

DOWNLOAD THE UPDATE HERE.

Authors

Rachel A. Alexander

Rachel A. Alexander, a Member at Mintz, is a seasoned health law attorney and litigator who represents health plans, payors, and managed care entities in all aspects of managed care and payor regulatory, transactional, and litigation matters. She has a specialized focus on pharmacy benefit and drug pricing–related issues. She is regularly called on to help clients navigate pharmacy benefit manager (PBM) contract negotiation, administration, and procurement matters and provide guidance on compliance with federal law.

Tara E. Dwyer

Tara Swenson Dwyer is a Mintz attorney who advises private and public health care clients on mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, and complex service arrangements. She works with managed care organizations, pharmaceutical services providers, and integrated delivery systems.

Theresa Carnegie

Theresa C. Carnegie is a Mintz attorney who advises health care clients on a wide array of transactional, regulatory, compliance, fraud and abuse matters, and health law issues. She counsels health plans, pharmacy benefit managers, pharmacies, device manufacturers, and distributors.

Bridgette Keller

Madison M. Castle

Madison M. Castle is an Associate at Mintz who focuses her practice on health care regulatory, transactional, and enforcement defense matters. She represents clients across the health care sector, including hospitals, physician organizations, and health care systems.

David R. Gilboa

David R. Gilboa is an Associate at Mintz whose practice encompasses transactional, compliance, privacy, and regulatory matters. He represents a broad spectrum of health care clients, including health care systems, hospitals, digital health companies, clinical laboratories, nursing homes, home care agencies, physician practices, and pharmacies.

Xavier Hardy

Samantha Hawkins

Samantha Hawkins is an Associate at Mintz whose practice encompasses a broad range of complex transactions, compliance and regulatory issues, and governance matters for clients across the health care sector, with an emphasis on pharmacy benefit manager (PBM) contract negotiation.

Stephnie A. John

Stephnie is a Mintz Associate. She advises clients across the health care industry on regulatory, transactional, and compliance matters.

Lauren Moldawer

Alison H. Peters

Alison H. Peters is an Associate at Mintz with a broad health law practice that encompasses counseling clients on regulatory, compliance, transactional, and legislative matters. She works with health care and life sciences clients, including pharmaceutical and medical device manufacturers, physician practice groups, hospital systems, clinical laboratories, pharmacy benefit managers (PBMs), private equity firms, trade groups, and executives of health care entities.